

WOMEN'S FUND PRESENTS...

THE POWER OF PHILANTHROPY WITH JOAN MARIE JOHNSON, PHD.

Celebrating emerging to established philanthropists.

Joan Marie Johnson is a historian, author, and story teller. Her latest book, Funding Feminism: Monied Women, Philanthropy, and the Women's Movement, 1870-1967. It shows how wealthy women wielded their money to help make change for women, including winning the right to vote, access to higher education, birth control, and better conditions for working women.

Joan received her PhD from UCLA in women's and Southern history, and taught history at Northeastern Illinois University for twelve years, she was the co-founder and co-director of the Newberry Seminar on Women and Gender at the Newberry Library. Today, Joan works in the Office of the Provost at Northwestern University.
